From the Pro...Jeff Marks

Since this is my first newsletter to you, I'll begin by introducing myself. My name is Jeff Marks and quite recently, I accepted an offer from Perry CC's Board of Directors to serve as your new Head Golf Professional.

In my position, my efforts will be focused mainly on marketing and promotion of club memberships, golf outings and general public usage of our facilities, especially during slower time periods. Additionally, I plan to introduce interesting member golf events and a comprehensive golf instruction program designed for all specific skill levels.

Personally speaking, my background includes Class A Membership in the PGA since 1992, a Bachelor's Degree in Professional Golf Management from Ferris State University, 20 years of experience as a Head Golf Professional at several top facilities including En-Joie Golf Club (PGA Tour Facility) and Pine Oaks Golf Course at Robins Air Force Base. Lastly, I have attained two certifications in golf instruction from PGA Hall of Fame Members, Jim Flick and Jimmy Ballard, and served four years as a Director of Instruction for Jimmy Ballard Golf Schools in the 90's.

I look forward to meeting all of you and doing my part to make your experience as a member of Perry Country Club very enjoyable.

Golf Clinics

Jeff is offering a "low cost" series of golf clinics for specific golfer types starting September 14th. Classes will be offered on various days and times for your convenience. 5-one hour classes for ladies, seniors, beginners, advanced players and juniors will be offered for only $99, including range balls and rental clubs (if needed). These classes will be limited to a 6 to 1 student: teacher ratio to allow each person ample personal time with Jeff to maximize learning.

Call the Perry CC Pro Shop at 478-987-1033 to sign up today.

Classes are open to both members and the public.

Fall Match Play

Sign up for the Fall Match Play is now underway at the pro shop. This event is open to all club members only and will be played at 100% handicap. If you do not have an established GSGA handicap, please see Jeff if you are interested in playing.

This event allows you the flexibility to play each 9 hole match at a time convenient to both yourself and your competitor. A perfect event for those with busy schedules!

This Fall Match Play is open to the first 32 players to sign up, so please don't hesitate.

Call the Pro Shop at 987-1033 to register today.
